

Bible Reading Discussion Questions

Instructions: These questions are meant to be a guide more than directions. Use them at your discretion. Don't feel obligated to use them all, and if you discover other helpful questions to ask which promote conversation, please include them.

- 1) Which reading most stood out to you recently?
- 2) What are some themes that tied some of your readings together?
- 3) What have these passages revealed about the character, nature, and works of God?
- 4) What have these passages revealed about humanity – our needs, sins, fears, or hopes?
- 5) What are some ways the context or genre have impacted how you've read certain passages?
- 6) How do these passages connect to God's larger redemptive story?
- 7) How have these passages deepened your understanding of God's promises?
- 8) What can you apply to your life today in light of your reading?
- 9) What sins do these passages warn you about?
- 10) How might these passages guide how we love one another?
- 11) Where do you feel resistance to what these passages teach? Why?
- 12) What do these passages invite us to be thankful for?